Stanch Old Principles and Keen New Ideas Make the Best Store

Somehow or Other the World Looks Bigger Than Ever

Surely there is more to be done in it. Tens of thousands of young men and young women, made fit by education, are being introduced by universities and colleges such as Harvard, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Yale, Bryn Mawr, Ogontz School, Wellesley, with assured preparedness for service.

These young lives will feed the world with new life by high enthusiasms and generous ardor which will overbalance their inexperience.

It is not easy for the old leaders in banking, railroading or commerce to take on new ideas. Those who offer suggestions quickly discover that it is much the same as ringing the bell of a house whose people have moved away. But the only thing in this new country of ours that we should be ready to stereotype is

Our Glorious Star-Spangled Banner

Speaking for ourselves, we welcome the valuable contributions of our colleges to roomy hearts and to wide doors of opportunity, to help us to shape new problems and meet new situations.

[Signed] John Namate

Dainty Rhinestone Bar Pins

It's an unusual woman indeed who does not enjoy possessing (and wearing!) a pretty rhinestone bar pin. It's a useful as well as ornamental accessory, and looks well with Summer frocks or blouses or dark frocks, too.

Bar pins in new and attractive designs, of sterling silver, set with glistening rhinestones, $3.50 to $15.
(Jewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

IN THE entire collection of sterling silver for the bride there is no more important item than

The Tea Set

In the first place it usually decides the pattern of the rest of the silver, and the question is, shall it be one of the severely simple Colonial types, the dignified English designs, the elaborate French or the classic Roman.

Several varieties of all of these are in the Wanamaker Jewelry Store. The choice afforded is really very great.

Early American Washington Colonial Paul Revere Sedgwick Lansdowne
George II Harewood Pompeian Vitruvian Louis XIV Louis XVI

Beginning with a seven-piece Sedgwick set (including tray and kettle) at $635, prices mount to a fine hand-chased Louis XIV set (seven pieces) at $3475. Or if desired each piece of any set may be bought separately.
(Jewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

Inexpensive Organdie Frocks for Women—$13.75 to $32.50

Made in solid colors such as blue, yellow or rose, in colors combined with white, and in all white.

Some have nothing but tucks for trimming; some have Valenciennes and embroidery vests; some have frills and ribbons and rows of little buttons, or puffed net inserts or some other quaint form of ornamentation.

Perhaps the prettiest of all are the white frilly sorts.
Prices are $13.75 to $32.50.
(First Floor, Central)

For Summer Outings—Women's Panama Hats $3 and $7

They are in generous shapes with comfortable head sizes, and are fine for Summer sports and outing wear.

The $7 hats are attractively trimmed with silk scarfs and bands in gay colors.

The $3 hats are untrimmed, but in the same shapes and sizes. Any woman who needs such a hat will find one of these a good investment.

Opportunities in the Odd Furniture Clearaway Are Fine But Fleeting

If you want to pick up a single piece of good furniture at a saving of one-third to one-half you cannot afford to wait another day, not even another hour.

The pieces offered in this clearance are too good to last. As we anticipated, they are giving out quickly. We have kept adding some fresh pieces, but this cannot keep up indefinitely. The collection is made up of things, no two of them alike, and not a great quantity of anything. In no instance is the saving less than one-third. A great number of pieces are at half price, and even less.
